

Make Things Happen

Changes

For my second slide I took the advice to change the text because it went against the message I wanted to give. It was make things happen, but the text was broken, so I chose to use a more solid text. I put it at the bottom of the slide so the entire picture could be seen without the words interjecting it. I chose a new picture that better correlates with my message, and would be more visually appealing.